

Adam Chrobak, BSc, MLT
Public Representative

Term: 2018 – 2021 (2nd term)
Region: Capital
Committees: Inquiry Committee, Finance Committee

Biography

Adam Chrobak is currently the Registrar and Chief Executive Officer for the College of Medical Laboratory Technologists of Manitoba (CMLTM). He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry & Zoology from the University of Manitoba, a diploma in Cytology from Red River Community College and Health Sciences Centre, and a Master of Business Administration from Athabasca University. Additionally, Mr. Chrobak has completed diploma training in Occupational Health and Safety, Quality Assurance Planning and Management in Health Care. He has extensive continuing education and is a member of several professional associations related to his occupation.

Adam Chrobak is presently the Vice-Chair and Treasurer of MIPS, was the past Chair of the Manitoba Alliance of Health Regulatory Colleges and has acquired significant knowledge with regard to professional regulation in Manitoba. Adam was previously a member of the Interim Transitional Board of the Manitoba College of Social Workers and currently serves as a public representative member of the MCSW Board.