Biography

Michelle is a fourth year Bachelor of Social Work student at the University of Manitoba. In April 2019, she completed an 8-month practicum with the Mobile Crisis Unit at MacDonald Youth Services. There she learned the roles of: Crisis Worker, Crisis Clinician and Intake Clinician. This year, she will be completing her final practicum with Louis Riel School Division in school social work. Upon graduation, Michelle hopes to start her social work career as a School Social Worker, preferable in a division where she is able to practice in both English and French. Additionally, her future goal is to complete her Master of Social Work.

“I have a strong passion for this field, for working in a rural setting and particularly for working with youth. My heart belongs to advocacy work, and I am incredibly grateful for my education; an education that has significantly helped me become a better ally for the clients that we serve”
